1983 DISTRIBUTION EDITORIAL INDEX

The speaker made reference to a "must-read" article. Your boss ordered you to round up pertinent background material for an upcoming presentation. Your students asked for additional sources of information. Oh, yes, and Mom called to tell you to send her a copy of that article you were quoted in five months back. You know the answers all lie in that formidable stack of back issues, but how can you unearth them without spending half a day leafing through magazines? Dig into this guide, and dig yourself out of all those holes.

AIR FREIGHT

Colliding Forces in Air Freight, Jan., p. 23
Reflections of an Old Pro, March, p. 17
Supermarketitis, May, p. 31
Buying Air Freight: Too Often an Afterthought, May, p. 46
On Taking Leave, August, p. 14
Ask and You May Receive, Oct., p. 32
Jumbo Jets and Megatrends, Dec., p. 27
Air Freight: Still Having Ups and Downs, Dec., p. 77

BULK

Bulk Shipping Charters—Are They for You?, March, p. 54
Is History Repeating Itself?, May, p. 38
Psst! Wanna Ship Somethin' Bulk?, June, p. 52
Shipping from Lilliput and Brobdingnag, Oct., p. 22
The Continuing Recovery Yields Continuing Rates, Dec., p. 34

CLAIMS

Of Cargo, Claims and Negligence, Part One, April, p. 54; Part Two, May, p. 98; Part Three, June, p. 70
Freight Claims in Plain English, Sept., p. 75
The Uniform Liability Pipedream, Oct., p. 11
Rail's Declining Claims Ratio: Magic or Model?, Dec., p. 28

COMPUTER

Coping With the Shape of Rates to Come, Jan., p. 22
Now's the Time to Get On-Line!, Feb., p. 22
Guide to Computer Systems, Services, Hardware & Software, Feb., p. 29; March, p. 74; April, p. 68; May, p. 107
Packages vs. Service Bureaus, March, p. 13
Do You Want the ICC to be an Electronic Library?, April, p. 29
In-House, Out-House or Doghouse?, May, p. 27
Still More Micros, June, p. 10
Getting Ocean Rates On-Line Means Getting Off the Dime, August, p. 28
Computerization: Where Are We?, Sept., p. 85
Shipper/Carrier Electronic Dating Service, Oct., p. 39
Zip-ity doo da, Nov., p. 37
Computer Update, Dec., p. 7

DISTRIBUTION MANAGEMENT

Casebook, Jan., p. 27
Forecasting the Current Climate, Jan., p. 37

1983 DISTRIBUTION EDITORIAL INDEX

The speaker made reference to a "must-read" article. Your boss ordered you to round up pertinent background material for an upcoming presentation. Your students asked for additional sources of information. Oh, yes, and Mom called to tell you to send her a copy of that article you were quoted in five months back. You know the answers all lie in that formidable stack of back issues, but how can you unearth them without spending half a day leafing through magazines? Dig into this guide, and dig yourself out of all those holes.

AIR FREIGHT

Colliding Forces in Air Freight, Jan., p. 23
Reflections of an Old Pro, March, p. 17
Supermarketitis, May, p. 31
Buying Air Freight: Too Often an Afterthought, May, p. 46
On Taking Leave, August, p. 14
Ask and You May Receive, Oct., p. 32
Jumbo Jets and Megatrends, Dec., p. 27
Air Freight: Still Having Ups and Downs, Dec., p. 77

BULK

Bulk Shipping Charters—Are They for You?, March, p. 54
Is History Repeating Itself?, May, p. 38
Psst! Wanna Ship Somethin' Bulk?, June, p. 52
Shipping from Lilliput and Brobdingnag, Oct., p. 22
The Continuing Recovery Yields Continuing Rates, Dec., p. 34

CLAIMS

Of Cargo, Claims and Negligence, Part One, April, p. 54; Part Two, May, p. 98; Part Three, June, p. 70
Freight Claims in Plain English, Sept., p. 75
The Uniform Liability Pipedream, Oct., p. 11
Rail's Declining Claims Ratio: Magic or Model?, Dec., p. 28

COMPUTER

Coping With the Shape of Rates to Come, Jan., p. 22
Now's the Time to Get On-Line!, Feb., p. 22
Guide to Computer Systems, Services, Hardware & Software, Feb., p. 29; March, p. 74; April, p. 68; May, p. 107
Packages vs. Service Bureaus, March, p. 13
Do You Want the ICC to be an Electronic Library?, April, p. 29
In-House, Out-House or Doghouse?, May, p. 27
Still More Micros, June, p. 10
Getting Ocean Rates On-Line Means Getting Off the Dime, August, p. 28
Computerization: Where Are We?, Sept., p. 85
Shipper/Carrier Electronic Dating Service, Oct., p. 39
Zip-ity doo da, Nov., p. 37
Computer Update, Dec., p. 7

DISTRIBUTION MANAGEMENT

Casebook, Jan., p. 27
Forecasting the Current Climate, Jan., p. 37

All Systems Gobrecht, Jan., p. 44
Guide to Trade Associations, March, p. 50; April, p. 74
It's Never Too Late to Think Freight, April, p. 80
Are Distributors Redistributing Distribution?, May, p. 62
All Aboard to Be a Broker, May, p. 69
Site Location: State Taxes, Fees and Labor Costs, May, p. 77
Resource Management: An Alternative View of the Management Process, June, p. 92
Refused Freight: A Double-Edged Sword, August, p. 44
What's All the Fuss? It's Only Business Logistics, August, p. 74; Part Two, Sept., p. 93
Twelfth Annual Career Patterns Survey, Nov., p. 45
Headhunters Lead You Through the Jungle, Dec., p. 62

DISTRIBUTION & WAREHOUSING

IRBs—Useful and Threatened, Jan., p. 67
A New Expanded Look at How This Art and Science Can Help Your Company Do Business, March, p. 81
A Light on Savings, April, p. 84
What is Contract Warehousing?, May, p. 115
Security Seals, June, p. 83
Warehouse Information Network Standards, June, p. 107
Richway's Way, August, p. 58
John Snakard Talks to the AWA, August, p. 80
Some Are Waiting for Wins to Catch Up, Sept., p. 110
A Warehouse Software Primer, Oct., p. 124
Information Can Replace Inventory, Nov., p. 101
Turning Old Dogs into New Retrievers, Dec., p. 85
Public Warehousing: Innovations After the Basics, Dec., p. 42

EDITORIALS

1983: A Year of Retrenchment for Distribution, Jan., p. 4
Welcome, Mrs. Dole, I Think, Feb., p. 4
O/Os' Shutdown: The Shots Were in Their Own Feet, March, p. 4
You Are On Your Own, April, p. 4
Honestly, It's Dishonest, May, p. 4
Time to Get Assertive about Truck Taxation, June, p. 4
Issues in Ethics: Some Are Clear, Most Aren't, August, p. 4
Bowing Down to the Beancounters, Sept., p. 5
Let's Get the Government to Help Our Exports, Not Hinder Them, Oct., p. 4
Capital Ideas, Nov., p. 4
Who's Afraid of Antitrust?, Dec., p. 4

EDUCATION

Definitely not Old School, August, p. 52
Continuing Education, Nov., p. 82

EQUIPMENT

Guide to Transportation Equipment, Nov., p. 51

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

The Documentation Can Be Touchy, April, p. 26
Someone Has to Pay, June, p. 37
Hazardous Materials Transportation, Sept., p. 38
Moving Closer to a National Policy, Nov., p. 30

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Contracting for Household Goods Transportation, Sept., p. 68

INTERMODAL

Bigger Trailers Won't Slow TOFC, March, p. 25
Multi-Modalism Blooms Again, May, p. 15
Squelch the Sour Grapes, Aug., p. 22
Who Owns This Carrier Anyway?, Oct., p. 25
What You Buy May Not Be What You Get, Dec., p. 16

INTERNATIONAL

Import/Export Case in Point, Jan., p. 50; May, p. 55
Luxembourg: Europe's Small Wonder, Jan., p. 58
Import/Export Survey and Quiz: The Results, Feb., p. 45
Trends in International Distribution, Oct., p. 54
Get Out There and Win One for the (Export) Shipper!, Oct., p. 70
The Organized Approach to Exporting, Oct., p. 84
The Export Court, Oct., p. 91
Foreign Customers Need Service, Too, Oct., p. 104
Getting More Out of a Marine Insurance Program, Oct., p. 112
Export/Import Case in Point, Nov., p. 91
Give Yourself a World of Credit, Dec., p. 59

LAW

A New Lease, Jan., p. 10
Favored-Shipper Discounts, Feb., p. 11
Competitive Credit Terms, March, p. 20

continued

EDITORIAL INDEX 1983

High Cap on Rail Rates, April, p. 28
Antitrust Laws and the Frumious Bandersnatch, April, p. 45
More Rail Deregulation, May, p. 24
Faster Rate Cuts, June, p. 22
Contractual Common Carriage, August, p. 18
Short-Notice Rates to Do Away with Bootleg Rates, Sept., p. 18
A Shipper Gets Caught, Oct., p. 14
No Contract Carrier Tariffs, Nov., p.14
Private Carriers Can Now Consider Their Source, Dec., p. 30

MANAGEMENT CONSULTING

Critical Lot Sizing Factors, April, p. 8
"Ship it the Way You'd Want to Receive it", May, p. 10
Human Issues vs. Hardware, June, p. 34
Cutting Costs in Distribution, Sept., p. 14
Private Fleet Productivity, Oct., p. 20
Warehouse Incentives, Nov., p. 16
An Issue-Oriented Approach to Productivity, Dec., p. 32

MARITIME

Is Anybody Out There?, Jan., p. 20
The Shipper's View of Container Stowage, Feb., p. 49
Serving Customers During a Lengthy Strike, March, p. 33
Maritime Issues: When Do We Get Underway?, March, p. 40
Bulk Shipping Charters—Are They for You?, March, p. 54
Negotiating with Carriers: Rates, March, p. 66
The Mighty Shipowner, May, p. 20
Psst! Wanna Ship Somethin' Bulk?, June, p. 52
Longshoremen Unemployment, August, p. 20
Surviving Intermodalism, Oct., p. 43
What Will We Get When We Get a Shipping Act?, Dec., p. 22

PRIVATE TRUCKING

The Tale of the Prodigal Private Fleet, August, p. 34

RAIL

Negotiating with Carriers: Railroads (Part Two), Jan., p. 54
The BN Grain Car "Solution", Feb., p. 16
Veteran Shipper Speaks Out on Rail Issues, April, p. 18
Fears of Spheres of Influence, April, p. 36
Boxcar Exemptions, Route Cancellations and Competition, June, p. 42
Financial Profile, August, p. 66
Two Rate Scales for Grain?, Sept., p. 29
November 7: A Day That Will Not Live in Infamy, Nov., p. 35

SHIPPER/CARRIER

Bliss or Bickering?, Nov., p. 28

SMALL SHIPMENTS

Is the Price Right?, Feb., p. 15
Can Amtrak Dare to be Freight?, April, p. 31
No Laughing Matter, June, p. 19
Not Just Some Other Pretty Faces, Sept., p. 33
Yet Another Attempt at One-UPS-Manship, Nov., p. 19

TRUCKING

"TOTO" Pales by Comparison, Jan., p. 16
Trip-Lease Rule Opens New Doors for Shipper Co-Ops, Feb., p. 19
Rate Basing Systems: Simplify, Simplify, Feb., p. 38
Off and On the Killing Ground, March, p. 63
Big Changes Loom for Rate Classifications, April, p. 21
Classification: Which Way?, May, p. 88; June, p. 75
Are Truckers Being Railroaded?, June, p. 45
Motor Carriers 1982 Financial Profile, June, p. 59
Shipper Co-Ops Can Be a Private Affair, Sept., p. 23
Contract Carriage: No Golden Age, Sept., p. 58
Stronger Over the Short Haul, Sept., p. 78
Overnight, Over the Road, Sept., p. 100
DOJ: In Search of Collective Rates, Nov., p. 23

WASHINGTON

Hard to Classify, Jan., p. 12
DOT Still Needs to Be Committed, Feb., p. 12
The Course Is Staying, March, p. 10
A Dirty Job that Someone Has to Do, April, p. 35
Be Offensive to Be Heard by Defense, May, p. 12
Hear No Evil, June, p. 48
Big Deal, August, p. 30
Strained Seals, Sept., p. 30
How to Get the "Blues", Nov., p. 24